Tell them that their lives count.

Friends of Humanity was formed in response to the desperate impoverishment of the people of northwest Haiti. We assist those who are working in the region to transform despair into hope and desolation into dignity. As a charitable organization, we are directly involved, making frequent visits to the orphanage in order to identify needs, provide personal oversight, and supply the hugs no money can buy.
